

German Shepherd Wins Ribbons In Miami Dog Shows

Milo H. (Pappy) Jones is all smiles and a very proud man since his ten months old German Shepherd puppy, Viking of Ellengrund, won a blue ribbon with 182 points of a possible 200 out of 122 dogs at the Greater Miami Dog Show held in Miami at Dinner Key Exposition Building recently.

The black and tan German Shepherd also won second prize in the 9 to 12 months old division and third prize in the Obedience Trials, in Novice Class "A" with 196 points at Miami Beach.

His official entry record is: Viking of Ellengrund—Mar. 6, 1954. Breeder, Anthony L. Rotolo—By Ch. Vol of Longworth-Schaltz Von Haus Ingeborg.

Mr. Jones plans to enter the Viking in the dog show to be held in Palm Beach in March.

While I was aware of the fact that many small industries are springing up all over the state, it never occurred to me that Florida could hold the position of leader over every other state in any industry.

I was really surprised when I learned from a story in the current issue of the Aluminum Bulletin, official organ of the Aluminum Association, that Florida leads all other states in the manufacture of such aluminum products as doors, windows and jalouses.

Equally startling was the statement that today there are 350 firms in Florida engaged in the manufacture of these products. It seems that the industry has been growing very rapidly in the last five years, particularly in the Miami area where about 90 percent of the aluminum plants are located.

While doors, windows, jalouses, awnings, louvers, blinds and shades top the list of aluminum products, furniture, aircraft, boats, prefabricated units, containers, signs and a number of appliances are all being manufactured in Florida. Recently placed on the market are ready-to-assemble aluminum honeycomb panels with extruded frames which interlock without the use of screws or other fastenings. Various floor plans for houses or commercial buildings are available, and individual plans may be submitted in any length and in widths up to 25 feet.

Also available is a prefabricated aluminum room that can be shipped in cartons, with all interlocking parts marked and assembly directions included. A recently developed aluminum roof, in single or sandwich panel construction, is designed for carports, patios and trailer awnings. Store fronts now may be purchased in open form with the idea of adding walls later for a fully enclosed room.

Aluminum also is being featured in low-cost retirement homes in order to reduce upkeep, the Aluminum Bulletin reported. One developer in the Clermont area is selling one-bedroom homes on quarter acre lots for $6995. These houses have flat roofs completely covered by aluminum to reflect the radiant heat rays of the sun, and all windows and frames are aluminum to keep down maintenance costs.

A number of years ago the federal government turned to aluminum and tested it out on two post office buildings in Florida, one located at Key West and the other in Miami. Aluminum windows installed in these buildings in 1932 were examined recently and found to be in almost perfect condition.

Aluminum products bearing the inscription "Made in Florida" are being shipped all over the world. Aluminum garden and porch furniture with gayly colored plastic backs and seats have proven immensely popular because of their lightness and general all-round utility. They are sunproof, waterproof and rustproof and can be used anywhere indoors or out.

While the magazine did not tell how many people are employed in this single industry or state the payroll represented, it must certainly run into thousands of employees and millions of dollars annually, all of which is helping to advance the state's financial well-being.

A community is usually much better off with numerous small industries such as these representative rather than depending on one or two large industries. We should encourage and support more of them.

WASHINGTON SEE-SAW

Make A Change — After Courtney Campbell was defeated for reelection in Tampa, we wrote a story telling how something like 3,500 people had cast their votes in Hillsborough County for a list of unopposed candidates only. They did this by voting for them in a group.

By pulling down one lever in the voting machines. It is a safe conclusion that they thought they were voting the straight Democratic ticket. A few people laughed at this "alibi" for losing — but now a close check at the votes the eighth district shows that the same thing happened there. In the race of Haley vs. Sutton for Congress, 19,455 democrats voted. The record shows that 3,348 democrats voted—and wasted their time—for a similar list of unopposed candidates. Obviously these were Haley votes. Haley won in spite of it — but you can count on one thing — somebody is going to try to change that way of voting in Florida.

Fast Work — When is a man a Congressman? Due to a bit of fast foot-work on the part of "he-con" Sikes, Paul Rogers, son of the late Dwight Rogers, took office a few days before schedule. When a man is elected to Congress, his election is "certified" by the counties to the Secretary of State in Tallahassee. The Secretary then sends a certificate to the Speaker of the House in Washington and then — and then only — can the new Congressman be sworn in. In Rogers' case, while the papers were still being processed in Tallahassee, the House voted to accept him by "unanimous consent" and he took office without being certified. One of the rarest maneuvers we've ever heard of. Sikes, who engineered it, said, "We all knew he was elected — and it worked, didn't it?" Means Business? — It looks like Senator Smathers means business when he talks about the United States setting up a separate lending agency for Latin America. The other day in the Capitol he had a tiff over it with Maj. Glen E. Edgerton, managing director and president of the Export-Import Bank. "The trouble," Smathers told the General, "is that the people running the X-M Bank don't have enough imagination. They are trying to operate it like a local American Bank where they will lend you all the money you don't need. In dealing with the expansion of Latin-American business and trade, we will have to go by the prospective results—not by ability to repay. We've got a big gamble in Latin-American—and we'd better take it."

Don't Get Lost — If you think you know your way around up here in Washington, you'd better make a note of these office numbers. Congressman Dante Fascell, of Miami, is in room 1216, in the New Office Building. Paul Rogers is in the same office that his father occupied for years, 111 in the Old Building. And Senator Smathers — oh, yes, he's moved into a four-roomer suite — now working in number 304 of the Senate Office Building.

Episcopalians To Prepare For Lent Next Sunday, known as Septuagesima Sunday, the Latin word for Seventieth, is approximately 70 days before Easter. It is the first of three pre-Lenten Sundays, being followed by Quinquagesima (approximately 60 days before Easter) and Quinquagesima (exactly 50 days before Easter).

The Wednesday after Quinquagesima is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, falling this year on February 21. The Pre-Lenten season is not a period of fasting and abstinence although the predominant color of altar and vestments is violet, the color of penitence. The joyful Gloria in Excelsis is omitted on Sundays and no Allelujahs are sung. The Bible selections read in the Liturgy prepare the minds of the faithful for the coming Forty Days of Lent.

Father Petrie, vicar of St. John the Apostle Church in Belle Glade, will preach next Sunday at 9 a. m. on the Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard some of whom worked only one hour yet received the same pay as those who had worked all day. It is the Gospel for the day.

The service will be the Litany which will be read by Dr. G. R. Townsend, senior warden of the congregation.

Father Petrie On WSWN Next Sunday The 11 o'clock service at St. Martin's Episcopal Church, Clewiston, will be broadcast next Sunday over WSWN. His sermon will be "Matter and Spirit", setting forth the basic philosophy of classic Christianity as expressed in the sacraments and the use of the Church Calendar with its seasons of Feasts and Fasts.

Trinity College in Clearwater, alma mater of Billy Graham, announced that its new 1500 seat auditorium would be named in honor of the famed evangelist.

DITHANE D-14

From beans to watermelons, from azaleas to snapdragons—the profitable crops you grow deserve the best in disease control—with a DITHANE fungicide.

DITHANE Z-78 continues to be the all-around fungicide that protects many crops from many diseases. Among the Florida crops it keeps green and healthy is sweet corn. It is used to prevent infection from leaf blight and rust.

DITHANE M-22—a maneb fungicide, and newest member of the DITHANE family. DITHANE M-22 is an outstanding fungicide for the complete control of tomato diseases. When you spray tomatoes with DITHANE M-22 there is no need to switch or combine materials. It is also used on cucumbers, potatoes, peppers, gladioli, carrots, eggplant, celery and onions.

DITHANE D-14 is used for the preparation of inexpensive tank-mix zinc or maneb. For more information on crop protection with DITHANE fungicides ask the Rohm & Haas field man nearest you.

No Substitute For Local Paper

The surest way to develop the local community and create permanent prosperity is to encourage the building up of steady payrolls.

Information that shows the individual his interest in productive enterprise is indispensable to the sound solution of questions that encourage the establishment or growth of industries and business.

Just as industries bring business to every state, so do they make possible advertising and subscribers upon which the local newspaper depends, and herein lies the interest of editors in the problems of industry.

That this philosophy is sound and has a direct bearing on the prosperity of every community, every business and every individual is evidenced by figures released by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States covering the period from 1940 to 1950. They show that for every 100 new industrial workers in nine counties surveyed by the Chamber, retail sales zoomed $380,000, per capita income $500,000, and bank deposits $270,000.

An increase of 100 industrial workers meant 174 new jobs in nine counties, 112 more households and a population increase of 236—new purchasers of all manner of goods and services. The survey covered a ten year period and was designed to measure the impact of new industry on local business.

The problems of industry are the problems of the people. They involve the welfare of the publisher, who is the spokesman for the people and every business in the community.

People rely heavily on the home town paper. No other agency is a substitute for it. From politics, deaths, births and editorial comment on public issues, local and national, to household repairs, the grass roots press informs its subscribers.

It is the newspaper that people live with, sit down with, and study. Its editors help its readers formulate their own conclusions on current issues—not necessary agree with the editor. It is therefore logical that editors should take the lead in discussing issues which involve production and payrolls—bread and butter for all.

Keep Your Guard Up!

As the attention of every citizen is directed to the subject of reserve forces as the result of President Eisenhower's warning that a strong and combat ready reserve is paramount to the defense of America, the strongest reserve force in being today—the National Guard—is brought into sharp focus.

In every war of our nation's militia has served. In two World Wars and in the Korean conflict, the National Guard mobilized and trained hundreds of thousands of civilian soldiers. The colors of our nation's National Guard carry the battle streamers of nearly every major campaign in which this country has been engaged. The Guard has a proud and long history.

It is not the desire of peace loving Americans to have a fully mobilized army and sea force. Nor is it economically possible for us to support such a force. The answer then is the strong reserve urged by the President.

The National Guard is the most active and ready reserve in existence today.

Actively training—on the ground and in the air—are nearly 400,000 officers and men, a substantial proportion of them combat veterans of World War II and Korea.

These men—citizen-soldiers and 100 percent volunteers—are in more than 2,000 cities and towns in the 48 States, the unbranded over the States and Territories. Fiscal year-end strength of the Army National Guard has a strength in excess of 325,000 actively training in over 5,000 units. Its goal for the current fiscal year, which ends on 30 June 1955, is a strength of 375,000. Backbone of the Army Guard is its 12 infantry divisions and 5 armored divisions.

The Air Guard has more than 50,000 officers and airmen in over 620 federalized recognized units. Its 27 combat wings, composed of 67 tactical squadrons of fighter and light bombers—eventually to be 100 percent jet-plane equipped—form an air force we have required to work hard to meet the standards of training goal for the Air Guard is 60,000—with 3,400 pilots—in 688 units.

This is a substantial force—a sound base on which a stronger reserve may be built. It is a well trained force of citizen-soldiers who are required to work hard to meet its standards of training prescribed by the Departments of the Army and Air Force. The speed with which eight National Guard divisions, 68 tactical squadrons of the National Guard and hundreds of other service and combat support units of the Guard answered the call in the Korean emergency is indicative of its readiness. The Guard is our only ready reserve force today. It could be an even

A Winner Every Time!

Last Friday at our big basketball game with Centerville I sat next to a fan-looking old man. He was a little old, but he was the first I had—and he cheered every score they made.

But our boys began to catch up. Then Stretch Brown put us in the lead with a long set shot—and I noticed that the old fellow was now rooting for our side. "What team are you for, any way?" I demanded.

"Neither," he replied. "I've got my own team. I figure any kid that does a good job over is on my team. Root for the individual like I do—and you'll always be a winner!"

"From now on, whenever I see a good idea to keep my eye on the individual, instead of automatically grouping him in teams you're 'for' or 'against.' We're all individuals at heart, with our own ideas and our own right to prefer tea to coffee or beer to buttermilk, or to resist to 'blow the whistle' when anyone tries to regiment us."

stronger and more ready force if steps are taken to strengthen our entire reserve.

It is imperative that we keep our Guard up.

Outdoor Florida

By HERB MOSHER
One of Florida's leading "dog men" today contributes a guest column, upon my special request, which is of unusual interest to say the least. The manuscript is from L. E. Alford, of Kissimmee, president of the Florida Field Trial Association, and a sportsman of great repute. No one knows more about dogs than this fine gentleman and scholar, Mr. Alford. I would suggest clipping and filing this article. Now for Alford's contribution to "Outdoor Florida."

"Catmen have fenced all available land and hunters are scratching heads as they re-migrate. Where now? But all is not lost as long as the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission members have made hunting grounds available in various parts of the state, including for all type of game found in Florida.

"I often hear men say that they have sold their dog because there is no place to hunt. But shucks, any real hunter can find some place to hunt with his dog! A man that really loves his dog and doesn't just use him as a means for killing birds can always find a friend to take along and use some State owned hunting grounds. Course, we can't shoot as in the old days—making the sun our limit to the number we kill in a day! The present limit of ten quail per second game stuff, for old timers. But the supply of birds is not inexhaustible and we are right now with the problem of raising our own birds.

"But getting the day's limit in birds is only a part of the

Family Ties Strong In Racing Circles

MIAMI—Few sports and few businesses have so strongly family ties as horse racing. A check at Hialeah Race Course shows that where you find a trainer, jockey or race official, you'll probably find his son, cousin or brother working nearby.

Most famous "pappy" in racing today is 60-year-old Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons who has the two-year-old champion Nashua at the flamingo track, Fitzsimmons' "boys" are John, 61, stable agent for Hialeah, and Jim, 59, an assistant trainer.

There is even a father and daughter act at Hialeah well known to Floridians. Lyle Phillips and his attractive daughter, Lila, share training responsibilities of some 40 horses they have in their public stable.

Lila, who attended school in Miami, has shown hunters and jumpers at horse shows all the state. Lyle, a nationally rated polo player, has seen mallet action at Delray Beach, Palm Beach and Miami.

Edna Brumfield was best known as the trainer of the good sprinter Due De Fer prior to this season at Hialeah. Now he's taking over as the father of 16-year old Donald Brumfield, one of the most promising apprentice jockeys in Florida.

Famed Jockey Willie Hartack has Chick Lang as his agent. Old-time racing fans will remember another Chick Lang the present one's father, who rode Belgh Count to victory in the 1928 Kentucky Derby.

Among the new trainers at Hialeah this winter is young Elliott Burch, whose father trains the powerful Brookmeade Stable of Mrs. Isabelle Dodge Stans. When dad took a long vacation in Europe this summer, Elliott got his own trainer's license and sent out a couple of Brookmeade horses to stakes victories.

Another jockey great and now a veteran trainer, George M. Odom has won most of the stakes as a conditioner he won as a rider around the turn of the century. His son, George P. (Major) Odom, is stabled a few barns away from him at Hialeah as a successful public stable trainer in his own right.

Another brother team is that of Hirsch, Sidney and Eugene Jacobs. Gene and Sidney have horses at Hialeah while Hirsch is racing in California this winter. Sidney developed the famous juvenile colt Right Down at Hialeah last winter.

Topping it all off, Marshall Cassidy returns this year as a steward at Hialeah. He'll be rejoining his younger brother, George, who has been the starter at the flamingo track for many seasons.

Billie Burke To Appear At Palm Beach Playhouse

Billie Burke, America's beloved comedienne, returns to the Palm Beach Playhouse, in person, next week (February 7 thru 12) in the new Irving Phillips' comedy "Mother Was A Bachelor", thereby dispensing a warmth and radiance that has been missing from the Playhouse scene since her appearance last season in "Life With Father", which proved to be one of the greatest hits in Playhouse history.

"Mother Was A Bachelor" is the story of a sister-in-law who brings up her brother's children after his wife passes on. Suddenly she realizes that while she is actually a bachelor-maid she is completely tied down to domesticity. She promptly revolts, and the ensuing complications create all sorts of merriment and hilarity.

Featured in the comedy will be brilliant young stage actress, Jenny Hecht, who scored a triumph two seasons ago on fresh fruit, peanut butter sandwiches, and milk.

Tuesday, Feb. 8 — Sloppy Joe on buns, green lima beans, fruit salad, and milk.

Wednesday, Feb. 9 — Meat loaf with tomato catsup, creamed potatoes, carrot sticks, vanilla pudding, bread and butter, and milk.

Thursday, Feb. 10 — Baked ham, candied yams, buttered spinach, rolls and butter, and milk.

Friday, Feb. 11 — Salmon croquettes, buttered corn, tossed green salad, bread and butter, milk and ice cream.

Also adding and abetting Miss Buckle in the comedy will be Nancy Remick, David Hull, Catherine Payne, Morton L. Stevens, Bert Bolster, John MacKay, Ted Clark and two junior juveniles — Jim-Bob Probst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crabtree, and little Miss Andrea Colton, an extremely talented Palm Beach youngster.

The play is being directed by Mr. Crabtree; and the setting has been executed by Paul Berletem of the Playhouse staff.

Seats for "Mother Was A Bachelor", incidentally, have been selling like the proverbial "hot cakes", befitting Miss Burke's universal popularity with all age groups.

Advance reservations for Billie Burke in "Mother Was A Bachelor" can be made by telephoning the Palm Beach Playhouse box-office—3-6484.

Cattle Industry In County Is Growing Fast, Agents Report

The cattle industry — both beef and dairy — is experiencing a rapid growth in Palm Beach County and in future years will become a leading factor in the economic stability of this community.

That was a prediction voiced last week by representatives of the county agricultural department in an appearance before the county commission.

Discussing the beef cattle industry, H. L. Speers, assistant county agent, said that the industry is thoroughly established in Palm Beach County and is making progress.

This section, he told the commission, is already the largest producing county in the state even though a comparative newcomer in cattle raising. The industry started here in 1910 and last year some 75,000 head were sold out of the county, Speers said.

The industry faces some serious problems, Speers pointed out and named the lack of development of winter feed and the reluctance to produce high grade cattle.

The agent said the county agricultural department is encouraging ranchers to develop more pasture land and to store up feed for use during the winter months.

In the past he said, too many low grade cattle have been sold from this area and it is the aim of the department to encourage grain feeding to produce better cattle.

The dairy industry, according to John Causey, assistant county agent, has also shown rapid strides in the past year when five new dairies were started in the county. Causey said he expects at least five more dairies to begin operation here during the coming year.

He said that many of the operators from Dade and Broward counties are moving their herds here, being pushed out of their home areas in the press of developing lands for residential use. Milk produced by the Dade and Broward firms, Causey said, is shipped directly back into the home counties and is not used in this area in competition with local dairies.

County Agent M. U. Mounts said his department is continuously trying to "improve the quantity and quality" of its work.

He reviewed the activities of his department for the past year which showed that department personnel had made a total of 2,395 calls at homes during the past year to discuss agricultural problems; that 3,650 residents has visited the agricultural department; that 6,810 had called the office for telephone information.

The department, Mounts said, staged 109 radio shows; had prepared 181 news releases, distributed 9,314 bulletins and had conducted 400 meetings which drew an attendance of some 23,000 people.

The new agricultural headquarters on Military Trail, Mounts said, is fast becoming the center of many activities and that the building is in use both day and night for meetings and gatherings of one kind or another.

After hearing the agricultural report, the commission voted to study the possibility of employing another home demonstration agent to work in the county, and children's home to hold classes for the girls.

The board commended Mounts and his staff for their work during the past year.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

From

WASHINGTON — Members of the Florida delegation are starting their fact-finding missions to present at appropriations hearings on civil works projects being carried on in the state.

Fully convinced that there is only one sound approach to the problem of floods and drought, we have firmly determined to fight for an orderly speed up of the giant flood control program. The entire delegation will join in urging that ten million dollars — the amount recommended by the army engineers and the amount called for by the logical phasing of the project — be appropriated for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1.

This decision was reached at a breakfast meeting with leaders from the Flood Control District a few days after the President's Budget was presented to the Congress. Here for the meeting were Egin Bayless, chairman of the Board of Governors of the Flood Control District; Turner Wallis, the project's engineer; and Herbert C. Gee, consulting engineer.

While frankly pleased that the President recognized the validity of the arguments we have been making in increasing the Budget allocation by 48 percent, we feel no hesitancy in asserting that it is poor economy to draw back short of the capabilities of the engineers to efficiently carry on construction. Yet the $6,300,000 recommendation of the President is one of the most encouraging aspects of the budget, Florida-wise, and we may wind up fighting hard to hold that figure.

Frust of Tampa Labor: We were equally pleased with the fact that the President also asked for a start on the long-neglected Tampa harbor project. Much work by the delegation in Congress cooperating with Tampa civic leaders, had brought an authorization for the harbor improvements in 1950, and this year the Budget Bureau's scheduling of the work was a welcome, and natural, climax.

For this program, three years of work has been laid out, at a total estimated cost of $45 million. The work will start subject to final approval by the Congress, in July, with a $977,000 appropriation for the next fiscal year.

The Budget carried $920,000 in funds for the Jim Woodruff dam, and lesser sums for several other projects.

Park Progress: Development of Everglades National Park has seemed slow, but the year 1955 will reflect more significantly the results of much preparatory labor and expenditures.

The Budget carries funds for nearly a million-dollar program for the coming year — $961,102 to be exact. Of this construction will get $726,100, while $153,292 goes for management and protection, and $71,710 to maintenance and rehabilitation. I have talked with National

Most people still don't believe it. But it is true.

And when you look into the facts, you'll find these two solid truths:

Buick is one of the "Big Three" in sales volume—and hotter this year than ever before. And Buick is one of the "Big Three" when it comes to prices which make such popularity possible. The price we show here proves it.

So why not get what a Buick has to offer, if you are in the market for a new car?

You find that the dollars you pay for Buick buy you a lot more automobile—and the sheer satisfaction that comes with bossing a brawny traveler of this caliber.

You find it in the record-high V8 power that gives life to this spirited performer. You find it in the soft and level and cruiser-steady ride that comes of all-coil springing and torque-tube stability. You find it in the extra roominess, the extra frame strength, the extra tread width, the extra silencing—all part and parcel of every Buick.

We could tell you about the little things, too. Things usually charged for as "extras" in other cars, but yours as standard equipment at no extra cost in every Buick. Things like direction signals, oil-bath air cleaner, full-flow oil filter, automatic lighting in glove and trunk compartments—and so on.

But—you get the idea. This is a buy, this '55 Buick—a great buy—and a thriller from the instant you press its gas pedal. Come in this week and check things for yourself, won't you?

*2-door, 4-door Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 41, illustrated. Standard equipment: accessories, spare and local taxes. If any, additional Buick may vary slightly in delivering communities. Even the slightest difference you may not see. Buick's slogan: "You get what you pay for."
